

Comenius

Turkey 16th April – 20th April 2012

By Miss Robinson and Mrs Jones

Konya, Turkey.

- Konya is a large city with 2 million people, a similar size to Birmingham.
- It is in central Turkey in a very flat region.
- A Muslim area with 200 Mosques within the city.
- A call to prayer can be heard throughout the day across the city.

The School

- The school is the largest school in Konya with over 2000 children and 90 staff.

The Food

Traditional Turkish Dancing

Mevlana Meditation

- The Mevlana will turn on the spot with their hands raised up to Allah. A form of prayer.

Cappadocia – World heritage Site

- Cappadocia is an ancient site of rock formations from volcanic activity. Some of the rocks are 11 million years old. People carved their houses into the rocks and lived beneath the ground. These caves can still be visited today.

Turkish Ceramics and Pottery

