

Dear Parents/Carers

As part of Wicked Wales Studio's International Youth Film Festival, a group of Key Stage 2 children were invited to their studio in the Little Theatre to see short films made by children from all over Europe. The studio supports young people interested in the creative industries, helping to bridge the gap between their learning and work. The children were asked to give their feedback on the films and were able to see the studio in person. Wicked Wales will be running free film making workshops for children after school in the future and we will send the information once we receive it. We are really grateful to Rhiannon Hughes for inviting us to the studio to take part in this session.

Our new school council have met this week and they have decided to create a school newsletter. They voted on the name for the newsletter which will be called Cymuned Emmanuel / Our school, our voice and they will use this to give information to pupils on current issues. We look forward to reading the first edition. The school council has also updated our anti-bullying policy and created new posters which are displayed around the school.

Dymuniadau gorau/Best wishes
